

East Cape Day Trip

East Cape Coast Cruise to the Bay of Dreams!

Details	Come aboard our spacious cruisers for a wonderful marine experience on the amazing Sea of Cortez! We'll cruise the coast 25 miles north, taking in the beauty of the Baja peninsula from the sea. The Sierra de La Laguna mountains are reminiscent of the Kaanapali coast line in Hawaii! We'll pass the 'Point of the Fisherman', aka "Punta Pescadero", El Cardonal, Boca del Alamo and arrive in the remote, azure waters of the Bay of Dreams, in Spanish "Bahia de Los Suenos". We'll have lunch at the new "Giggling Marlin" Restaurant before our return adventure home. Along the way dolphin, whales, turtles and a host of other fish may be spotted. Start on board with fresh fruit smoothies and donuts Snorkel during warm days in the clear and pristine "Congo's Cove"
Time	8:30 am to 2:30 pm +/-
Minimum	10 people, up to 24; $50 per person - individual lunch at the Giggling Marlin is in addition
Date	To be determined; subject to weather

East Cape Day Trip

Quad Adventure & Tour of Mountains & Arroyos

Details	Rediscover adrenaline (and perhaps your love life if you ride double!) on this fun-get-dirty-go-as-fast-as-you-feel-four-wheel-ATV-trip into Baja's backcountry. Get off the highways, out of your RV's, and into the mountains on quad-track trails for unsurpassed riding and views. Charge up sandy arroyos (riverbeds) with tall walls, wonderful twined trees, past huge boulders deposited during previous hurricanes and find your way to rock covered waterfalls. Single or Double Riders, with guides Bring your picnic lunch or snack for the waterfalls Safe, fun and a wonderful way to get 'into' Baja Want a 4-wheeler for the whole day, or even a week? That's available too
Time	Approximately 3-1/2 - 4 hours
Minimum	2 or more; $50 single rider, $60 double rider
Date	Anytime, morning, noon or afternoon

East Cape Day Trip

Santiago's Waterfall Oasis & the Emerald Lagoon

Details	You won't believe your eyes and you'll be stunned by the beauty of this 35' waterfall and 100' wide lagoon in the midst of Baja! Hike 15 minutes to the overview, or climb down and get wet – important note - to descend to the lagoon, you must be agile, athletic and absolutely not afraid of heights. All others should enjoy the view from the lookout. Visit Baja's only Zoo and a beautiful, historic church in this charming oasis town. Bring your lunch for a picnic or stop for a cold cerveza along the way Or, opt to go to the "Palomar" Restaurant (Palomar is Spanish for 'where the doves live'.) Self-guided map; 4-wheel drive vehicles needed; $5 BioReserve access fee
---------	---

East Cape Day Trip

Boca del Alamo Petroglyphs & Punta Pescadero

Details	Blend 'modern' Mexico with its ancient past. Nineteen miles north on the new, twisty, mostly paved mountain road (1 hour +/-) or the bumpy, beautiful coast road, (1-1/2 +/-), 4-wheel drive vehicles are best and necessary for the last mile only, shuttles can be run The hike is a moderate climb and takes about 30 minutes, gaining approximately 1000 feet in elevation to view the pictographs, endless mountain views, arroyos and incredible views of the Sea of Cortez and the Bay of Dreams. Take a walking stick for assistance if you'd like; bring your camera! Picnic at the trailhead in the arroyo Stop at Punta Pescadero, the boutique hotel and bar on the cliffs for a cold drink or cocktail
Time	Most of the day

East Cape Day Trip

Mountain Biking

Details	Self guided maps available to what many believe are competitive to some of North America's greatest mountain biking trails. Get your heart rate up, earn that Super Sized Burrito and enjoy the Baja backcountry.
---------	--

East Cape Day Trip

Snorkeling or Diving

Details	Self guided maps available to "Las Pilalitas", our own favorite snorkel spot just 8 miles north on the coast road. Abundant fish and a secluded beach hold the makings for days to dream back on. World-renowned 'Cabo Pulmo' is Mexico's only living reef and found 40 miles south. Vista Sea Sports provides the best on-the-water scuba diving experience while often visiting up to 3 sites including a chance to swim with the sea lions.
---------	--